

The Hudson Mohawk Recorder Society

invites you to an online workshop with

Glen Shannon

Sunday, January 24, 2021 2:00pm – 3:30pm Eastern Time

La, la, la: Lyrical Tunes from the Renaissance and Today,

With and Without Lyrics

Join us for a workshop of lyrical music written by French, Venetian and Italian Renaissance composers and Glen's Adagio movement from Sonata in Little G for ABC, commissioned in 2018 by Joseph Loux for the Adirondack Baroque Consort on the occasion of their 55th Anniversary.

Glen Shannon (b. 1966) is a composer and recorder enthusiast living in El Cerrito, CA where he is a member of the East Bay (CA) Recorder Society and Guest Director of the Barbary Coast Recorder Orchestra. His love of straightforward, approachable music for the recorder has garnered him several prizes in composition contests since 1997, including the Chicago Recorder Society and the Washington, DC Recorder Society, the ARS and the former Amsterdam Loeki Stardust Quartet. Members of the former Flanders Recorder Quartet, Tom Beets and Joris Van Goethem, have commissioned works from him for their advanced-level "Air Force" workshops in the UK and Northern Europe and most recently commissioned a Bass-Contrabass duet that they recently recorded for their next CD currently in production as the duo FR2.

Glen publishes his music under his own name at www.glenshannonmusic.com, and has also had works published by Moeck Verlag, PRB Productions, Loux Music Publishing Company, the European recorder magazines "Recorder" in the UK and "Blokfluitist" in the Netherlands, and the American Recorder Society. Performances of some of his works can be found on YouTube at www.youtube.com/glenshannon.

Glen is active in the American Recorder Society as producer and editor of the quarterly Members' Library Editions, a series introducing new recorder music to the worldwide membership, and is the producer and editor of the annual ARS Play-the-Recorder-Month piece that appears with the Winter edition of the American Recorder magazine.
